Legend to the map of the area south of Yerevan

1. Post with inscription "Yerevan".
2. Gardens.
3. Fields.
4. Civil airport, which is clearly visible from the highway. Source is uncertain of the exact location, but believes it is near the village of Shinkovit.
5. The village of Norakovit. Houses line both sides of the road. There are one or two small stores.
6. Distance between Norakovit and Taza-Kend, which is about two kilometers. On both sides of the road, the fields are fairly flat. Between the highway and the railroad, there is an artificial stream, called an aryk, which irrigates the fields. The course of the aryks can always be clearly seen, because of the trees growing on the banks.
7. Village of Taza-Kend. All the houses are surrounded by orchards, as is usual in this area. These orchards, which are usually surrounded by a wire or stone fence, are an additional source of income for the inhabitants. Frequently, the houses cannot be seen because of the fruit trees.

8. Barren fields, covered with weeds, to the left of the road.
9. Uncultivated hill adjoining the field. The road makes a sharp turn around this hill.
10. Village of Agamzalu, which has about ten houses.
11. Village of Ulukanlu.
12. Village of Yabakhshalu (Jabashalu, Yabashkhalu). It is about 2½ to 3 kilometers from this village to the next. Fields lie on both sides of the road. On the western side of the road, there is a line of trees growing along the aryk and the railroad track.
13. Village of Imamskhalu, with about 20 to 25 houses. There is a small square in the center with a full-length statue of Stalin of stone or cement. Opposite the statue is a building, which probably houses the kolkhoz administration.
